Seniors

TODAY WE FOLLOW,. TOMORROW WE LEAD.

WAYNE DUKES
President

A handsome guy, he couldn't be neater--his car's equipped with a one arm heater.

KENNETH BRYAN
Vice-President

I must confess, the women like me.

CLASS MOTTO:

Today we follow;
Tomorrow we lead.

CLASS FLOWER:

Red Carnation

CLASS COLORS:

Aqua and White

I believe in getting into hot water; it keeps you clean.

SHERYL SAUL
Secretary

He never enters a room--he raids it.

WILLIAM WALBORN
Treasurer

LINDA ALBORN

She won't live long.....
single.

ROBERT BOLANDER

If study was the only cause of death; I'd live forever.

MICHAEL BOUTWELL

A lot of fun, an awful tease;
just sits around and shoots the breeze.

Don't bother me, I'm too busy having fun.

JoLYNN CHAMBERLAIN

There are times when silence is the best way to yell at the top of your lungs.

RUTH COFFMAN

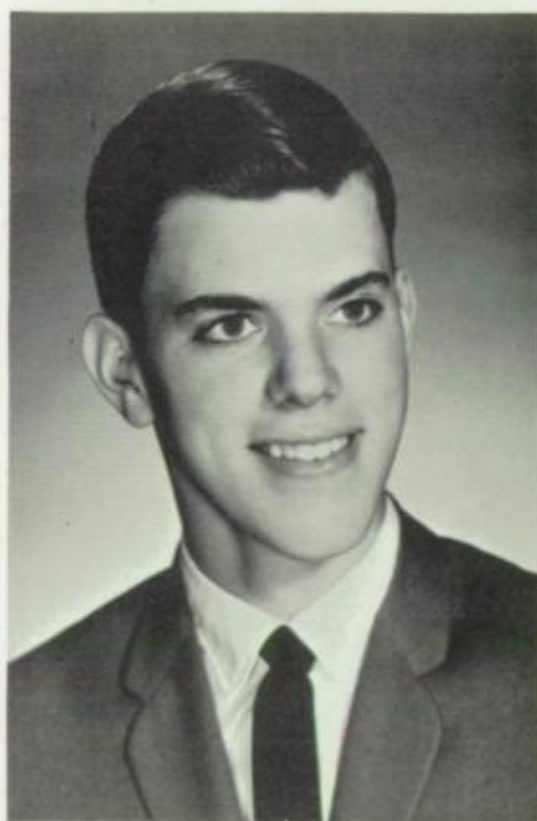

DENNIS CRAMER

Rest today for tomorrow you may have to work.

JANICE DUKES

Personality plus, as the saying goes, from the top of her head to the tip of her toes.

TODD FISHER

I never met a man I didn't like.

Silence never makes a blunder.

JANICE GARLINGER

Greater men have been born, but I doubt it.

CHARLETTE GEORGE

PAMELA HALLOWELL

TIMOTHY HANKINS

A willing smile, a friendly face, a credit to the human race.

Men of few words are the best of men.

DANIEL HARPST

Why worry about size? Napoleon was a little guy, too.

My idea of an agreeable person, is one who agrees with me.

All great men are dead...
I feel sick.

LEWIS KLINGLER

BETTE KUHLMAN

CAROLYN KUHLMAN

EVELYN LaROCHE

It's funny the things teachers will do, they try to appear smarter than you.

Studious girl and keen of mind; a nicer girl you'll never find.

JAMES MANGES

Her spirits are like a geyser
.....always bubbling.

There lies a deal of deviltry beneath this mild exterior.

Of all the classrooms east to west, he likes the classroom of nature best.

SANDRA OSBORN

DAVID PIERCE

CATHERINE POWELL

SUE POWELL

Of all animals, boys are the most unmanageable.

Who needs an attic...I've got a purse.

THOMAS POWELL

Fine as a student but even better as a friend.

Just call me doc...I can operate anywhere.

An innocent appearance, but looks can be deceiving.

SANDRA SNYDER

GLEN SEITZ

JAMES SHAFER

He just looks good naturedly at a sour old world.

MARGARET SHRIDER

Serious in every endeavor, she'll get there whatever the weather.

BECKY SMITH

I take things as they come
.....easy.

What he wants most out of school is himself.

She's often seen and always heard.

LOUIS STEEGMAN

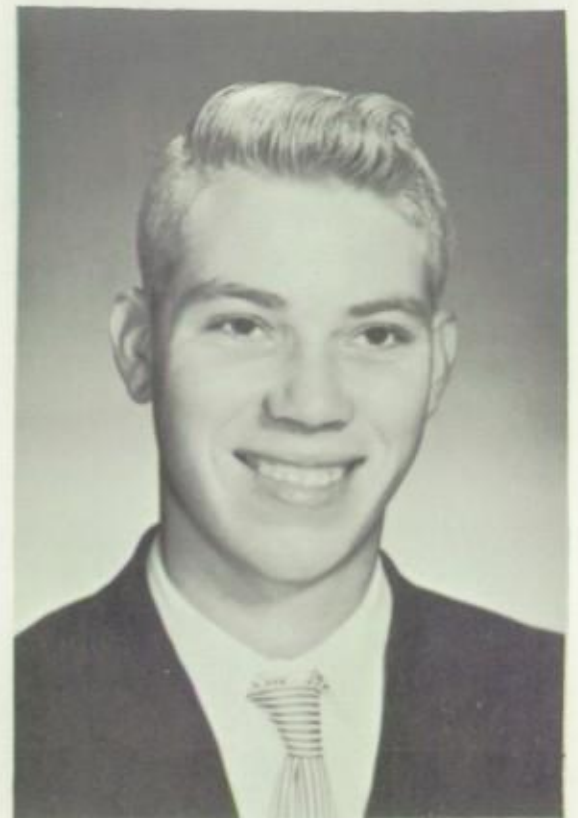

JACK WAXLER

MARY LEE WILSON

Is she as quiet and unassuming at home?

FRANK WILLIAMSON

Still waters do run deep; in class I often fall asleep.

JACK WITTENMYER

Kindness is the oil that takes the friction out of life.

A hot rod driver such as he,
will some day end up in a tree.

SALLY WITTENMYER

Happy-go-lucky, careless and free; there is nothing that bothers me.

CLASS WILL

We the Senior Class of 1964, being of sound mind and body, do now will the following unforgettable traits and troubles:

ARTICLE I

To the Freshmen we will our seats in Study Hall, we never used them anyhow.

ARTICLE II

To the Sophomores we will our meek and quiet ways; it helps the faculty's nerves.

ARTICLE III

To the Juniors we will our home room and Mr. Howard. Don't give him as many gray hairs as we did.

ARTICLE IV

To the faculty we will all our excuses, may you never fall for them again.

ARTICLE V

I, Linda Alborn, will my ability to tear fender skirts off the car and get away with it to Rita Parkins.

I, Jesse Bartley, will my unerring ability in Physics and Chemistry to those who have as much interest in it as I.

I, Ken Bryan, will my ability to get along with Mr. Castle to anyone who is foolish enough to accept it.

I, Bob Bolander, will my jeep to anyone who can keep it out of snow drifts.

I, Mike Boutwell, will my ability not to fall down hay chutes to Mrs. Miller.

I, Jody Chamberlain, will my blond hair to Ken Karhoff.

I, Ruth Coffman, will my ability to stay out late at night and still be peppy in the morning to Jim Martin.

I, Denny Cramer, will my ability to play basketball to Ridge Anderson.

I, Jan Dukes, will my ability to break drumsticks to Vicki McCartney and my natural dark hair to Jan Beltz.

I, Wayne Dukes, will my parking space in Saul's driveway to M. M.

I, Todd Fisher, will my position as center on the bench to Ridge Anderson.

I, Jan Garlinger, will my excessive energy to Debbie Bibler.

I, Charlette George, will my ability to forget important things to my brother.

I, Pam Hallowell, will my bus seat to Ken Karhoff.

I, Tim Hankins, will my manly features to Terry Martin.

I, Dan Harpst, will my reserved seat at Palmer's to Mr. Wareham.

I, Lew Klingler, will my speaking ability to anyone else with a hair lip.

I, Bette Kuhlman, will my cheerleading tights and fringe to Becky Wagner.

I, Carol Kuhlman, will my ability to get in and out of embarrassing situations to Lois Wilson.

I, Evelyn LaRoche, will my ability to do my homework to my brother, Gary.

I, Jim Manges, will my ability to stay out of trouble to Ed Shulaw.

I, Sandi Osborn, will my position in the cafeteria to Rod Hulbert.

I, David Pierce, will my unfinished assignments and low grades to Rebecca B.

I, Sue Powell, will my front seat on the bus to Mike Murphy.

I, Cathy Powell, will my ability to get into trouble and not get caught to anyone who thinks he can get away with it.

I, Tom Powell, will my ability to get away with fouls to Bob Jones.

I, Jim Shafer, will my official little black book to Larry Way.

I, Sandy Snyder, will my peroxide bottle to Jan Beltz.

I, Sheryl Saul, will my ability to get in hot water to anyone who needs a bath.

I, Glen Seitz, will my driving ability to anyone with no regard for life.

I, Peggy Shrider, will my nail file to Ella Williamson.

I, Becky Smith, will my four inch heels to Janis Fagan.

I, Lou Steegman, will my ability to cut my finger in the jointer to anybody who wants it.

I, Bill Walborn, will my ability to talk in Mrs. Miller's class and get away with it to Bonnie Bunn.

I, Jack Waxler, will my ability to get along with Mr. Bosse to anyone crazy enough to take it.

I, Frank Williamson, will my ability to get my homework done to Chas. Bennett.

I, Mary Lee Wilson, will my porch swing to Lois Wilson.

I, Jack Wittenmyer, will my dimples and wavy hair to Carl Smith.

I, Sally Wittenmyer, will my ability to blow the whistle at the wrong time to Janel Shank. Watch Mrs. Rucker!

I, Jim Youngs, will my flame thrower to Mr. Castle.

In September of 1960 the long days of waiting were over and we finally climbed the stairs to the High School. Mr. King was the sponsor of our class of forty students.

We started our Sophomore year energetically as most Sophomores do. Carol Kuhlman and Sheryl Saul added to our numbers and the absence of Butch Williamson was not enough to hide the fact that we were still a "Big Class". We were split up that year with Mr. Bosse and Mr. King as our sponsors.

At last we were Juniors, and with that title we got to be real eager beavers. We lost Sandy Lanning and Richard McDonald but gained Pam Hollowell. We presented the play "Eager Miss Beaver" and held the concessions at football games that fall. In the winter we sold Christmas cards and then magazines in the Spring. Our hard work paid off and we were able to present the most beautiful prom ever. "Apple Blossom Time" was a prom that will never be forgotten.

When school opened in September 1963 we thought we would have some peace, but our work was just beginning. We had thirty-nine in our class and Mr. Howard was our sponsor. We lost Dianne Rose and gained Jody Chamberlain. With the Freshmen properly initiated, we really began to feel like Seniors. We had basketball concessions, candy store, and sold peanut brittle during the winter. In the spring we sold magazines and presented the play "No Boys Allowed". The Juniors honored us at a prom on May 15, 1964. May 16th was Baccaulaurette with Reverend Hanover from the Benton Ridge E. U. B. Church, as our guest speaker. That evening we left for our class trip to New York and Washington, D.C. We took our final steps in the "old school" on May 17th for Commencement Exercises. We received our diplomas and listened to words of wisdom from Dr. Warren Gutherie.

We will always be grateful to the faculty at Liberty-Benton for showing us the right paths of learning and for strengthening our knowledge. We, the Senior Class of 1964, hope that we will never be forgotten.
